Town of Eagle Announces Finalists in Chief of Police Search
Candidate Meet-and-Greet Scheduled for August 29, 5:30 – 7:30 pm

EAGLE, CO – The Town of Eagle has selected finalists for the Chief of Police position.

“The Town of Eagle Police Chief Hiring Committee is excited to announce that the finalists for the Chief of Police position are Aaron Lopez, Windsor, CO; Carrie Buhlman, Rifle, CO; Hiram Rivera Jr. Kremmling, CO; Jeffrey (Jeff) Lofton, Nixa, Missouri” said Town Manager Pardee.

“The Town contracted with SGR Associates to conduct a nationwide search for the new Police Chief, interviewed several experienced candidates, and is confident in the four who are moving forward to the finalist round.”

Meet and Greet 08/29

A Candidate Meet-and-Greet will be held at Town Hall on Monday, August 29, 2022, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. This is an opportunity for the public to meet the candidates in-person. The Candidate Meet-and-Greet will be facilitated by SGR and light snacks will be served. There will be opportunity at this meeting for the public to provide written comment for the Town’s consideration.

“We hope that members of our community will join us on Monday to be part of this hiring process,” said Pardee. “This is your chance to meet the candidates and provide your feedback.”

Interviews

The Hiring Committee will hold interviews with all finalists on Tuesday, August 30 at Town Hall.

Following the interview process, the Hiring Committee will meet to determine which candidate(s) to negotiate with and conduct extensive post offer background checks. If the background checks and negotiations are successful, the Town expects to formally present an offer in September.
